HART AND WILLE IN TAME BOUT

Kentuckian Had Better of the Scrap.

MARVIN FAT; JOHN FIT

Ticket Scalpers Lost Money in Speculation Because of Slim Attendance.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—Marvin GUNTON TOO STRONG Willie in the wind-up at the Washington Sporting Club last night, although he did not do any great damage to the Chicago boxer, and the bout taken as a whole was rather disappointing. There was a fair crowd present, the advance in prices probably frightening away many people.

The ticket sealpers, who as a general thing are a wise lot, got fooied last night in handling this match. Thinking that there would be a great demand for tickets the scalpers loaded up, and they had a big bunch left after the fight. About the time the wind-up was ready to go on $3 tickets could be bought out-

Hart Was Fat.

Hart was the taller of the two, but he looked fat and was not in the best of cendition, having a vomiting spell before the contest began. Wille appeared to be in good shape. Hart stood with his left arm extended and his jaw well covered up by raising his shoulder. The men agreed to break when ordered, and they boxed cleanly as a general thing. Hart forgetting himself once or twice. Hart landed the first hard blow of the contest—a right to the body. Wille landed two light punches—a left and right—in quick succession. Hart followed with a savage smash on the heart. Hart sent a hard swing at Wille's head, which John slipped very nicely. If he had not it would have ended the body. Hart followed. Them Wille got his left to the body. Both landed light punches, a clinch followed, and then Hart put another to the body. Wille put in a left swing on Hart's head just before the bell rang. It was a nasty smash and Marvin's head rooked.

Mt. Pleasant, a large crowd was present to witness the game. Genton played with its usual snap and ginger when playing on the Mt. Pleasant, grounds. St. Stephen's was close to it in all departments of the game. Each side made one error and ten hits, but Gunton made its hits count for more, and ran the bases better. St. Stephen's scored two home runs in the first inning, Xander and McDonald putting the ball into the field back of Shoemaker, The latter was not fielding at his both shits to singles.

Wille rushed Martin to the ropes shortly after the second round opened, and in the mix-up he landed two light left-hand punches on Marvin's head. Hart got in a telling punch on the body, and he sent a hot one to John's head

Wille Kissed the Floor.

Was there sure the time, and a sure can be sured one very stiff punch on Marvin's ribs.

Wille Kissed the Floor.

The fifth and sixth rounds were faster, will got in two stiff blows in the former, but he had to take some practic hard body punches for his trouble. In the sixth Hart tried to force matters to a conclusion, but he was not able to land any decisive blows. Near the end of the round here to the blow had nurt him, and he complained of the punch after the bell rang, as he was sitting in his corner.

played game. Goodman, who pitched for Calvery, played ball from the get-away and had he been given support would have shut the opposing team out; as it was, he allowed but five hits, gave two bases on balls and caused nine of the Crimson boys to swish the air.

Errors were almost as numerous as hits, which resulted in the game being monotonous, and in fact, so little interest was manifested that in their half of the fourth inning Calvary after scoring three runs, and having men on second and third, took the field when the second man was retired on strikes.
